

Mya T. Lee

mya@mscodingacademies.org ❖ Florence, MS 39073 ❖ (601) 507 - 6447

Linkedin: <http://bit.ly/linkedin-mya> ❖ Github: <http://bit.ly/github-mya>

TECHNICAL EXPERIENCE

Portfolio Project

March 2021

Mississippi Coding Academies

Goal: Create a website to showcase skills, projects, and coding languages learned.

- Utilized Bootstrap to create a responsive website.
- Utilized CSS styling to design website.

Role Playing Game Project

January 2021

Mississippi Coding Academies

Goal: Create an interactive text-based Star Wars game incorporating HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.

- Utilized CSS styling and setTimeout function to create a Star Wars crawl and enable the game to play after the crawl.
- Implemented an array of objects to create a data set to hold the game scenes and player options.
- Applied variables, mathematical operators, loops, and DOM manipulation to use data from the array of objects to enable the game to run.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Languages: HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript

Framework: Bootstrap

Operating Environments: Windows

WORK EXPERIENCE

Lead for America

Jackson, MS

Hometown Fellow with the City of Jackson

June 2019- present

- Aids in planning, managing, coordinating, and implementing TECH JXN, a conference/festival that highlights Jackson's innovation, with focus on the events and speakers for the Education sector
- Gains experience with WordPress to plan, develop, and implement TECH JXN's website content and design strategy
- Facilitates the Jackson's Workforce Leadership Academy with the Aspen Institute to assist the Academy Fellows to develop effective workforce strategies and programs for the Jackson workforce economy

Mississippi Museum of Art

Jackson, MS

Teaching Fellow

August 2018-present

- Researches and writes art historical and teaching focused papers on art pieces within museum collection and exhibits
- Ensures that museum visits engage with art pieces using close looking practices to continue the development of students' critical thinking skills
- Conducts innovative and educational tours for museum visitors and school groups

The Richard Wright Center for Writing, Rhetoric, and Research

Jackson, MS

Graduate Assistant

January 2018-June 2019

- Broke down complex concepts to help writers understand them and then broadening those concepts to help writers see the "big picture"
- Reflected upon personal experiences and performance to refine technique
- Communicated clearly with peers about subject material spanning a wide range of academic and professional subjects
- Provided and accepted constructive criticism in a professional manner

Mya T. Lee

mya@mscodingacademies.org ❖ Florence, MS 39073 ❖ (601) 507 - 6447

Linkedin: <http://bit.ly/linkedin-mya> ❖ Github: <http://bit.ly/github-mya>

EDUCATION

Mississippi Coding Academy

Full Stack certification

Jackson, MS
Expected May 2021

Jackson State University

MA, History, GPA: 4.0/4.0

Jackson, MS
Expected May 2021

Jackson State University

BA, History; Minor: Political Science, GPA: 3.86/4.0

Summa cum laude, Golden Key Scholar, Phi Kappa Phi Scholar

Jackson, MS
December 2017

CONFERENCES & AWARDS

University of Alabama Graduate History Association Conference on Power and Struggle

Paper Presentation

“The New Sapphire: The Debate about the Portrayal of Black Women in Tyler Perry Productions”

Tuscaloosa, AL
October 12, 2019

The Best Paper in Southern History

October 11, 2019

Jackson State University College of Liberal Arts College Day

Roundtable Session

“Cornerstone of a Liberal Arts Education: A Conversation on Writing with Richard Wright Center Tutors”

Jackson, MS
April 15, 2019

Mississippi Writing Center Association (MSWCA) Conference

Roundtable Session at Mississippi College

“Reflecting (on) Audience: A Conversation among Tutors”

Clinton, MS
March 23, 2019